

Art Submission Guidelines

We are happy to be able to display the creative minds we have!! If you are interested in having your art work shown at the conference, please read the information below.

*Please email samples of your work to Kelly at Kelly@aninfinitemind.com for approval. You may submit as many pieces as you like but due to space limitations, only 3-5 can be displayed. If your art might be triggering, please add a trigger warning to your subject line. We ask you are mindful of the sensitive nature of the conference when submitting your art. Submission ends January 26th.

*We can't accept art submitted on behalf of someone else. All artists will be asked to sign a waiver prior to showing their art. Only the legal entity and all parts of said legal entity can submit and sign. Simply put; the name on the waiver must match the name on your ID.

*Once your art work has been approved, you will receive a confirmation email. You will be responsible for bringing your art to the conference as well as displaying it in the space provided. Please bring any materials you will need to display your piece. Due to the restrictions of the hotel, only free standing easels, removable tape such as the Command Brand, or sticky tack can be used.

*Artists will receive an orange tag upon check in of their pre-approved art. Only art with orange tags will be permitted on display.

*If you wish to sell your art, you are most certainly free to do so. This is completely your responsibility. An Infinite Mind and Healing Together are not responsible for your transactions.

*At the end of the conference, please be sure to collect your art work. If you are mailing your art work, you will be responsible for shipping and return postage.
